OUR LEADERSHIP

MICHAEL VESTAL
Founder

With 13 years of experience in entrepreneurial non-profit contexts, Michael founded Ellsworth Cleaning to combine his passion for people development with creative organizational design. He set out to build a company that aligns the interests of both clients & staff, creating an organization that is both a great partner to hire and a great place to work.

Neal has over four years of experience overseeing large commercial real estate accounts, including more than 9 million sqft. of office towers, distribution and manufacturing facilities. Neal's extensive industry training, technical expertise, and project management strengths ensure that Ellsworth delivers unparalleled excellence.

NEAL DELRIO
Operations Manager

"Ellsworth's collaborative and people-centered approach to client service has been an excellent match for us and makes the difference in delivering consistently excellent service."

Jim Irwin, President at New City Properties

"Ellsworth has a remarkable, life-giving culture that genuinely supports its team as they do meaningful work."

Glen Jackson, Co-Founder of Jackson Spalding
